An Ill-Fated Train Bearing the Andrews Opera Company Goes Over an Embankment.

The Sleeper Immediately Catching Fire; Charming Mrs. Andrews and Maid are Cremated.

Twenty Persons, All More or Less Seriously Injured, Are Extricated From the Wreck.

BRainerd, Minn., Jan. 15.—A horrible accident occurred on the Northern Pacific railroad at Jonesville, the first station east of here, at 3:50 this morning. A special train consisting of the sleeping car Petrel and a baggage car was running as the second section of No. 9, the regular train from Superior. The special left South Superior at 11:35 last evening, having on board the Andrews Opera company going from Duluth to Grand Forks. The train was running at the usual rate of speed. Striking a broken rail, the sleeper left the track and went down an embankment landing bottom side up. Flames immediately broke out from all parts of the car and burned so rapidly that the crew could do nothing but extricate the passengers from the wreck. When all had been rescued as was thought, a search revealed the fact that Mrs. Andrews, wife of the proprietor of the house, and her Nurse Miss Lilly Wallace, were missing. By this time the flames were burning so hotly that it was impossible to get near the car. When the flames were finally subdued, the remains of the unfortunate women were recovered so badly burned that it was impossible to identify one from the other. Mrs. Andrews and Miss Wallace had occupied an upper berth at the forward end of the car and were wrapped in the bed clothes. There was no outcry from this berth while the work of rescuing the injured was progressing and it was supposed that both occupants were killed instantly.

The rapidity with which the flames caught and spread through the car caused no little surprise. It is not known whether they caught from the stoves or the stove, but it is supposed from the rapidity with which they spread they caught from the lamps.

Twenty persons, all more or less seriously injured, were taken from the wreck. Physicians were taken from Brainerd on a special train, and the injured were brought back to this city and taken to the Northern Pacific hospital as soon as possible. Here they were given the best of care and medical attention. The hospital is one of the best in the United States, and the injured will not suffer from want of care. Mrs. Andrews' stage name was Nannie Wilkinson.

An Appalling Spectacle.
Conductor Ball, who was in charge of the train, says the sight was the most appalling ever had by him. The wrecked car was literally enveloped in flames, her hair being on fire. Many of the women were nude, but were wrapped up as they were taken out. Mr. Andrews rescued the little baby and supposed his wife had escaped. He is prostrated with grief.

Following is a partial list of the injured:
Florence Joy, chorus girl, severely burned on back and arm, will probably die.
May Douglas, chorus girl, burned on head and arms, will probably die.
Miss Letitia Fitch, prima donna, burned on hands and arms.
Mrs. L. F. Barber, her sister, shoulder dislocated.
Miss Marie Roe, soprano, slightly burned and bruised.
George Andrus, baritone, burned on arms.
Miss Ella Harris, chorus girl, burned on neck and arms.
Jay A. Taylor, tenor, cut and bruised.
H. Allen, chorus, burned on back.
Fred Allen, chorus, bruised.
Miss Shearer, chorus girl, slightly burned.
L. F. Barker, a son of Mrs. Barker, burned on hands and arms.

THE ANDREWS OPERA COMPANY.
Nannie Wilkinson, who was a Favorite Here, Killed Near Brainerd This Morning.

The Andrews Opera company, which played at the Temple all last week and which closed a very successful engagement at the Grand in West Superior last night met with a terrible accident at Jonesville near Brainerd this morning. The company played "Iolanthe" at Superior last night and left after the performance over the Northern Pacific for the West. The list of injured reaches 20 or about half of those in the company. The only ones killed were Mrs. Ed Andrews and her maid, Mrs. Andrews will be remembered as the soprano of the company who played under the name of Nannie Wilkinson. While here among other parts she took those of the queen in "Iolanthe," the title role in "Falka." She was a particularly clever and charming little woman, and the many friends she made during her engagement here will be greatly pained to hear of her sudden and frightful death. The news of the accident caused a considerable excitement in the city, as several of the company were related to people here. Among those most interested was Mr. Lind, president of New Duluth, who is a relative of Jay Taylor, the leading tenor. Mr. Lind left this afternoon for Brainerd.

Board of Trade Officers.
The following caucus nominations have been made for the officers for the board of trade for the ensuing year: President, Frank S. Daggett; vice-president, Otto Hartman; directors for three years, John McLeod, George Spencer and W. S. Birch; board of arbitration, J. H. Cook, C. J. Kershaw, Jr., and J. N. McKinley; board of appeals, W. S. Moore, George Ripley and Thomas Gibson; committee on inspection, George Ripley, G. G. Barnum, Charles Canning, Walter Turle and Ward Ames.

J. W. Stewart has removed his undertaking rooms to No. 226 West First street, in the new Howe building.

THINKS SHE IS IN IT.

St. Paul's Chances of Getting the Convention Grow Brighter.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—St. Paul is more in the race for the national democratic convention than she has been at any time in the last three weeks. There is no reason to believe that a large number of the democratic committee men are of the opinion that St. Paul is not the best place to hold the convention.

The chairman of the national democratic committee, Calvin S. Brice, would, of course, be expected to support Cincinnati if the city should become a candidate. So far he has not been informed that Cincinnati will make any effort for the prize, although it is generally understood that she is to come in at the last moment as a dark horse and sweep away the convention before all the rival aspirants.

From the highest democratic source it is learned that the democrats themselves who are supposed to be candidates for the nomination for president, namely, Hill, Gorman and Cleveland, have no particular choice for the city in which the convention will be held. From these sources it is understood that both Hill and Cleveland have said that they think it would be inimical to their interests to have the convention at New York, and it may be set down as a certainty that New York, although she may present claims, is really out of the race.

Large maps of the city of Indianapolis have been displayed and furnished to different people in Washington, and the suggestion in circulars that 12,000, and the suggestion in circulars that 23,000 people could be accommodated in Pullman coaches in the railroad yards was laughed at.

LOBBYING FOR LAKE IMPROVEMENTS.

The Deep Waterways Delegation Will Soon Have a Hearing.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The lake men who are here in the interest of improvements in the way of channel dredging, lighthouse building, etc., intend to urge the rivers and harbors committee to extend the system of authorizing the completion of the projects, as was done in the case of the Hay lake, St. Mary's and the Saginaw.

The rivers and harbors committee is favorably impressed with the merits of the system so far. It is said that the Hay lake channel scheme alone has resulted in saving $750,000 already. The original cost of the work was estimated at $2,000,000 and so far $1,775,000 has been expended, while the chief of engineers in his report to congress asks for only $500,000 to complete the project, with the provision that any balance may be expended on other projects.

A general application of this principle to the works on the lakes would insure continuous work for a year whether the rivers and harbors bill passed or not. Since the authorization is in the nature of a contract and would bind the government, with any money not expended, it would probably plan a river and harbor bill for $12,000,000 or $20,000,000 would be as satisfactory to congress as a bill for only $500,000 or $1,000,000, and leave the fate of the government works in the hands of the legislature.

The delegation has arranged for a hearing by the rivers and harbors committee for the deep waterways convention on the 20th inst.

Senator Plumb's Will.

EMPORIA, Kas., Jan. 15.—The will of the late Senator Plumb was entered for probate and shows some queer features. The will does not show definitely the value of the estate, but while it has been placed as high as $2,000,000 by some and $100,000 by others, it will probably amount to $500,000. The senator had property in New York, Florida, Alabama, Virginia, Ohio, Missouri, Kansas, Colorado and Montana. Mrs. Plumb and her son, both invalids, were made sole executors of the will, and while Mrs. Plumb is in very bad health she will attend to all the business of the estate and has been looking after its interests fully.

The Blaine Divorce Case.

DEADWOOD, S. D., Jan. 15.—Notice has been served on Martin & McCandless, attorneys for J. G. Blaine, Jr., that motion will be made by the judge there here Jan. 20 on behalf of Mary Nevine Blaine for such increase of allowance as the court may deem just. The notice was accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the fact that expenses of the prosecuting testimony for plaintiff were paid by the defendant.

Smooth Sailing for Fifer.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 15.—The Illinois republican state central committee met at the Grand Pacific hotel yesterday and decided to hold the convention for nominating state officers and electing delegates to the national convention at Springfield, May 4. All the prominent republicans in the state, including Governor Fifer, were on the ground. The day's business was accomplished by an affidavit setting forth the fact that expenses of the prosecuting testimony for plaintiff were paid by the defendant.

Fatal Accident at Ely.

ELY, Jan. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Anton Johnson, a laborer, was instantly killed in the Zenith mine at this place yesterday by a fall of rock, which crushed his head out of all semblance. This is the first fatal accident to occur here in several weeks.

Mrs. Sam Chynoweth died here at 4 o'clock last evening. Death resulted from an attack of grip. She leaves several small children.

Chaplain's Resignation Denied.

MONTREAL, Jan. 15.—All sorts of rumors have been flying around regarding the probable action of Chaplain and other members of the dominion cabinet in reference to recent ministerial changes. It was asserted that Mr. Chaplain had tendered his resignation, and that the next session of the house as an independent member. This statement is now absolutely denied.

Distinguished Sculptor Dead.

ROME, Jan. 15.—Randolph Rogers, the distinguished American sculptor, died today of pneumonia.

PENSION REFORM.

A Movement Inaugurated by the Society of Loyal Volunteers For Pension Reform.

The Late War was for the Preservation of the Union and not For Conquest.

Their Motto: "Competency for the Disabled, Nothing for Those Able to Support Themselves."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—A movement for a revolution in pension matters has been inaugurated in Washington, where the movement has been working for some time, quietly but effectively. It is known as the Society of Loyal Volunteers. The work will be pushed by loyal soldiers, who believe that "pension" reform is necessary and that millions are being expended annually for pensions to men who have no right to the money.

The cardinal principle of this organization is a competency to those permanently disabled or unable to earn their living and nothing to the men who can either by their hands or brains support themselves and their families.

THE JOBBERS' UNION.

Their Meeting Held Yesterday; The National Park Scheme Blocked.

The most important business which came before the jobbers' union yesterday was the report from Chairman Patrick of the committee appointed to look after the matter of the forestry reserve. This report was one which was the source of considerable satisfaction to the members, for it showed that for the present at least the scheme of the Minneapolis people to cut off Duluth from the great country north by interposing a national park was blocked. He had certain assurance, he said, that President Harris would take no step in the matter until after there had been another survey of the proposed district. It is almost certain that if time is taken to investigate the matter, as it is now assured will be the case, this great injustice will not be done to Duluth. There was to have been a report from Mr. Costello, chairman of the committee sent to the waterways convention at Detroit, but he was not present and the report had to be postponed. The regular committee on reception of the union, consisting of J. B. Stuppin, D. G. Cutler, C. B. Woodruff and T. B. Hawkes was appointed to co-operate with the local waterway manufacturers in entertaining the Northwestern Lumbermen's association, 300 strong, which is expected to arrive on the evening of the 26th. A meeting of the committee was held this afternoon in the office of Duncan, Brewer & Co. to arrange for a plan of entertainment. The association which comprises the retail lumber dealers of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Kansas, Montana and the Dakotas, will arrive about 5:30 in the afternoon. A supper will be given them at the Spalding in the evening, to be followed by an entertainment at either the Lyceum or the Temple. The visitors will remain here until noon of the next day and go then to Superior.

THE BETHEL CONCERT.

An Excellent Program Rendered Last Evening; The Cecilians Tonight.

No better program has been presented during the week than that given last evening at the Bethel. Of those taking part there is little choice. In widely differing lines each is an artist. Sydney Brown was at his best and played with all the expressive sympathy which marks his execution. The "Silence de Ballet" by De Bériot was as good as any number of the evening. Miss Margaret McDonald was in splendid voice and sang with unusual brilliancy. Her best number was "When the Golden Rod's Aflame," by Campion. Miss McKay played Chopin's "Polonaise in E flat" and the "Last Hope," by Gottschalk, with a feeling and a finish of technique which mark her work fully worthy of the other numbers. S. A. Thompson sang his solo remarkably well and deserved the liberal applause received.

ALL ENGLAND MOURNS.

Universal Preparations Being Made to Attend the Royal Obsequies.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—An unofficial report has been issued which announces that the princess of Wales and Princess May are prostrated with grief at the death of the duke of Clarence.

From one end of Great Britain to the other great preparations are being made by all classes of people, those in civil life as well as those occupying official station, to give a final manifestation of their sympathy with the royal family and respect for its illustrious dead by attending the state funeral here respectively.

CITY BRIEFS.

Smoke Endion cigar. W. A. Foote & Co.

One bird was the only report at the health office today.

Judge Ayer is still very low, although it is hoped a trifle better.

A marriage license has been issued to John Jackson and Alice Howard.

Advertising space and good location may yet be had in The Herald annual if applied for at once.

Ladies can secure competent servants by advertising for them in the want columns of the Evening Herald. Rates one cent per word.

Default judgment on an overdue note for $163 was entered in the district court today in the case of A. C. Jones vs. Huntress & Brown.

Chas. Mell, held on a charge of seduction has not been arraigned, but will be as soon as the Hansen girl is well enough to appear against him.

John Solem, whose name was in excellent accord with his condition was the only prisoner before the police court this morning. He had reason to be sorry, too, for he was sent up for today.

Nels Hoff, the shoe dealer, arrested some days ago on the ground of insanity, was taken before Judge Ensign this morning on a writ of habeas corpus. A hearing in the matter was adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The concert at Endion church next Friday evening will be the third entertainment in the lecture course and promises to be a very interesting occasion. Some of our leading singers assist in this occasion. The Herald will publish full program later on.

The following variations in temperature were recorded at the Pioneer Fuel company's office, hotel St. Louis, 326 Superior street: 12 m., -11; 3 p. m., -7; 6 p. m., -9; 9 p. m., -11; 7 a. m., -26; 9 a. m., -24; 12 m., -14; Maximum, -7; minimum, -26; daily range, 10.

Dr. Chas. Slaughter read a paper before the St. Louis County Medical association last night on his cure for the liquor habit and nervous disorders. The association afterward accepted the resignation of Drs. Slaughter and Murray. A very warm time is reported.

The Herald annual which is now being compiled, will be the most carefully prepared and comprehensive edition of its kind ever issued. A few copies should be secured and mailed to non-resident friends by every Duluthian. Send in your order by mail or telephone.

DEMOCRATIC POLITICS

The Convention of the Faithful Followers of St. Jackson Meets and Names Its Men.

C. d'Autremont is Chosen for Majority Honors and Will Give Up His Lotus for the Race.

Roger S. Powell Takes First Municipal Prize While E. L. Winje is Named For Second Judge.

The disciples of Jacksonian democracy were gathered in force at the city hall this afternoon and when Chairman Truelsen called the meeting to order a little after 2 o'clock the hall was filled with the untried. The local political lights were well represented, though the fact that Mr. d'Autremont, the candidate for mayor, had no opposition tended to lessen the interest in the proceedings.

Just before the convention was called to order the interest which had lagged ever since the matter had appeared cut and dried began to revive, for a well-substantiated rumor became current that a movement to nominate Maj. Baldwin had become so strong that his chances were better than those of Mr. d'Autremont, therefore there was a prospect of an interesting fight when the gavel fell and the fight was on. Chairman Truelsen called for nominations for temporary officers after the call was made. Mr. Truelsen was temporary chairman and G. G. Spangler temporary secretary. On motion the following committee on credentials was appointed: C. P. McGinnis, Robert Louden and F. Ryan. On motion the temporary organization was made permanent and a committee was dispensed with. Chairman Truelsen accepted the honor in a very brief speech of thanks.

The committee on credentials reported that at the caucuses last evening the following delegates had been elected: The list of delegates elected at the primaries was as follows:

First ward—A. H. Dahl, John Blazer, F. Ryan, A. J. Heimbach, A. F. Weber.

Second ward—C. P. McGinnis, M. Thomas, Dr. D. Murray, Thomas Clark.

Third ward—C. J. Marshall, T. M. Helinski, George Spangler, M. Morris, A. S. Wilson, H. Truelsen, N. Young, Ed Ingalls, Z. H. Austin, Simon Clark, A. Ruff, M. B. Arimond, A. L. Stoddard.

Fourth ward—A. Moore, J. A. Foote, George W. Marm, E. L. Wittigton, C. M. Vance, Dr. Slaughter, Charles G. Miller, R. Louden, M. K. Baldwin, John Flood, T. D. Taylor, A. C. Taylor, Carl Newman, J. H. Heimbach.

Fifth ward—D. Sang, Paul Kerns, James Hart, Alex. S. S. Sullivan, J. H. Comer, John Crowley and Wm. Walcovich.

A number of absences were reported but all were supplied by proxies and out of the 43 votes which would have constituted a full convention all were cast on the first ballot. No delegates were reported from the Second precinct of the Fifth ward. Nominations were called for and C. P. McGinnis presented the name of Chas. d'Autremont in a few well chosen words. Simon Clark seconded the nomination. It was soon made apparent that there was to be a struggle, for Mr. Austin nominated M. R. Baldwin. It was moved to proceed to ballot and Messrs. Marshall and Ingalls were appointed tellers. The informal ballot resulted as follows: Baldwin, 12; d'Autremont, 25; Truelsen, 3; Simon Clark, 1; total, 43. Maj. Baldwin withdrew his name and Mr. d'Autremont's nomination was made unanimous.

Mr. d'Autremont was presented and thanked the convention for the honor. A vote was then taken for F. H. Cutting, 16; Chas. Collins, 1; H. F. Green, 1; R. G. Powell, 2; S. F. White, 1; E. L. Winje, 1; total, 22.

On the second ballot F. H. Cutting received 13 votes and R. S. Powell 28. Powell's nomination was made unanimous. E. L. Winje was nominated by acclamation for special judge.

The nominations for aldermen are not yet made, but will probably be as follows: First ward, Matt Carroll; Second ward, Morris Thomas; Third ward, W. B. Dixon or Alex. Wilson; Fourth ward, M. R. Baldwin; Sixth ward, C. F. Hopkins. For the Fifth ward no recommendation will be made by the delegation.

Chas. d'Autremont, the democratic candidate for mayor has been a resident of Duluth since 1882 and has during all that time been a practicing attorney. He was born in Angeleno, N. Y., in 1853 and received his higher education at Cornell University, graduating with the class of 1872. He completed his education at the Columbia law school and at the Academy of Lausanne. Since he has been in Minnesota Mr. d'Autremont has been recognized as one of the able men in the democratic party and more than once has received substantial evidence of the trust reposed in him by the citizens of the state and of his fellow party members. He was county attorney of St. Louis from 1884 to 1889 and in 1888 was the candidate for attorney general of the state on the democratic ticket. The republicans were successful in electing their entire ticket, but if such is the case Mr. d'Autremont was vindicated as to his personal popularity by defeat. As the democratic candidate for mayor Mr. d'Autremont will have the unanimous and hearty support of his party. He will make a strong candidate and his opponents will find him an adversary to be respected for his fighting qualities.

The general political situation is unchanged. A strong movement in the republican party has developed against Mr. Long and his chances for the republican nomination are less than they were yesterday. Among the political prophets his case is now considered hopeless. The alliance caucuses will be held this evening but are not expected to develop anything startling. The only fight of any great interest is between Alderman Perry and Henry Haskins in the Sixth ward. Both have agreed to abide by the decision of the convention, which means that Mr. Perry will succeed himself without any serious opposition. An alliance movement is to be held to-night at the court house.

WORLD OF COMMERCE

Early Cables Brought Selling Orders and Grain Prices Were Demoralized Today.

The Bearish Feeling Resulted From Reported Large Stocks in the Visible Supply of Europe.

Stocks Were Less Active, Developing Weakness Under Selling Orders and Firming Up Again.

The condition of foreign markets demoralized prices today. Early cables brought selling orders from foreigners to New York, while prices in Liverpool ranged 1d to 2d lower. This soon led to the unloading of long wheat in American markets. Prices here opened about 3/4c off, followed by a further break in May of 1 1/2c. The general bearish feeling seemed to be due to the reported large stocks on hand in European countries. The grand total of wheat produced for the world in 1891 was 2,116,000,000 bu., against 2,170,123,000 in 1890. The 1891 crop of this year of the world is estimated at 124,500,000 bu. of wheat, after deducting the amount of seed and consumption from crop production with the reserve. This would allow for exportation until July 1, 4,730,000 bu. weekly, against 5,000,000 bu. weekly during the last six months.

The session here was quite dull, buyers fearing to invest in any great extent on the decline of 2 1/2c, as compared with yesterday's close on May. Paris averaged 20c lower on wheat, Antwerp, 25c lower. The clearances from four ports yesterday were in wheat and corn, 513,686 bu. The margin for carrying January to May was down to 1c here. Nearly all the trading was in May wheat. In the last hour the market strengthened up 1/4c, closing steady, but dull, at from 1 1/2c off all round, except in May No. 1 northern which was off 1 1/2c. Cash No. 1 hard closed dull at 84 1/2c. On track 85c. Cash No. 1 northern closed at 83 1/2c. On track 85c. Cash No. 2 northern closed early at 78c and closed same. No. 3 spring closed at 71c. Rejected closed at 60c. January No. 1 hard closed steady at 84 1/2c. January No. 1 northern closed steady at 83 1/2c. May No. 1 hard closed at 89 1/2c. May No. 1 northern opened early at 89 1/2c and closed 88 1/2c. Millstuffs closed at 12c for bran and shorts in 200 pound sacks 12c of extra charge. Flax closed dull at 90 1/2c.

New York Money 2 1/2% per cent. Trading was less active on the stock exchange this morning. Sales to noon amounted to 165,000 shares. The opening prices were generally 1/2 to 3/4 per cent higher. Weakness was soon developed under a brisk selling of Missouri Pacific. At 11 o'clock prices were 1/2 to 3/4 per cent lower than last night. The market became firm in the hour to noon.

Weird and Mysterious Footprints.
(London Spectator.)

A correspondent from Mashonaland describes one of the weirdest discoveries. There is in that wild region a hill called "the Hill of the Footprints," on the rock of which are imprinted a crowd of footprints, many human, many of wild animals, all turned toward the top of the hill, toward which in some past century the whole crowd had evidently been fleeing in the greatest confusion. Of course the most natural interpretation is that the crowd was fleeing from some rapidly rising flood, and that the rock of the hill has hardened since the date at which this crowd of refugees rushed upward to its summit. But of course no trace remains to tell us what the issue of this moment of agony was. It is just as if we could hear the isolated scream of agony coming from the depths of centuries ago, without hearing anything of the tragic causes or anything of the tragic issue.

On the fourth page of this issue will be seen the advertisement of Frank I. Tedford, which we take pleasure in calling to the attention of The Herald readers. Mr. Tedford has long been a persistent friend of the Mesaba range—claiming that some day large deposits of high grade ore would be unearthed there. Nearly one year ago he issued a circular on the subject, which in the light of present developments seems like a fulfilled prophecy. The Herald wishes him success.

Children's Clothes.
There is a chance in many families to economize on the children's clothes by making over the garments of older people. If these are dyed with Diamond Dyes, which come in all colors, the result is a handsome suit or a fashionable coat or cloak at a very small cost. No other method of home dyeing is so simple and satisfactory as the Diamond.

THE DOGS OF WAR

Are Tugging at Their Chains and President Harrison is Ready to Let Them Slip.

War With Chile Apparently Inevitable Unless She Apologizes to This Government Forthwith.

An Ingenious Story Which Smells of Burning Powder and Sings of the Deadly Bullet.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—The Recorder this morning has an amazing special from Washington in regard to the Chilean situation. All the signs, it declares, point to war and that within a short time. In speaking of the cabinet meeting held yesterday, the Recorder says:

Not within a quarter of a century has a cabinet meeting been fuller of important contingencies than that which was held for nearly three hours yesterday. The president informed his cabinet of many things that had not been mentioned before. Two weeks ago he directed that each United States consul in Chile be called upon for a confidential report touching the sentiments of the people where he is stationed toward the United States. These reports have been arriving for the last week. They are unanimous in stating that there is an extremely unfriendly feeling against this country. "The reports create a profound sensation. The president then outlined his present plans. He expects the full report of Judge Advocate Remy's investigation by Tuesday next. He is fully informed as to what it will contain, and is preparing his message so that it may be ready to go to congress by Wednesday noon. Though it was not definitely stated, it was understood that under no conditions will Chile be allowed to go beyond this month in replying to the American demand.

A Grave and Serious Meeting. "It was a grave and very serious meeting. Every man present felt his responsibility to the country. The cabinet minister last night. 'One incident was interesting. The president spoke very strongly of the attitude of the Southern congressmen toward the administration during this crisis. Mr. Herbert, said he, has introduced a resolution repealing the act forbidding ex-convicts to be appointed in the army or navy. I have favored it, and now I hope that every republican will vote for it. It is a disgraceful act. Secretary Tracy had been directed to report at once the number of war vessels ready for service and within a few days' sail of Valparaiso. The secretary Tracy informed the cabinet, are in first-class fighting trim. This makes 13 of the best vessels the United States own all concentrated within easy distance of Chilean ports and it was last night that the administration would be sent to guard the Straits of Magellan.

Recruits Are Coming Forward. "The navy is not alone interested in the new and startling developments. Confidential orders were issued to the general superintendent of recruiting at New York yesterday to accept every available man fit for artillery or infantry. Gen. Schofield fitted filling up the infantry regiments by the admission of 1000 rank and file. Recruits are coming forward in unusual numbers just now, and the reports are that 300 were accepted from four stations in one week. "Everything now looks like trouble. Nothing except an apology from Chile will prevent it, and the Southern congressmen here declare that President Montt will not dare to offer it. They say his people would despise him if he did.

A DIRECT CONTRADICTION. "Advices from Valparaiso Give Assurance of an Amicable Settlement. NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—The Herald's Valparaiso dispatch this morning is in direct contradiction to those received here from Washington. It is as follows: "There has been a decided improvement in the situation within the past 24 hours. There is now no war talk in Valparaiso among those whose opinions have weight with the government. Minister Montt has called upon Washington that he has assurances of an early settlement of the questions arising from the assault upon the Baltimore's seamen and the minister of foreign affairs here has assured Minister Egan that the Chilean government will punish all the persons who were responsible for the assault. I am told on semi-official authority that Minister Montt at Washington has been instructed to act in the most conciliatory manner. Under these instructions he will avoid all difficulties that might bring about war. Minister Egan now means to give every consideration when visiting the Moneda. Diplomatic cavaliers acknowledge his success.

War Rumors Unfounded. There seems to be no good foundation for the war rumors circulated last night. Yesterday's cabinet meeting, instead of being three hours long, as one of them stated, was but an hour and a quarter in duration. So far as can be learned, none of the sensational incidents reported occurred. Both the state and navy departments were in receipt of communications from Chile today, but the officials state that they contain nothing of unusual importance. The fact that the dispatches were received, however, is satisfactory evidence that Minister Egan has not abandoned his post, as a telegram to the London Times led some persons to infer.

DUN'S BUSINESS LETTER.

Exports Large, Money Plenty, Trade Active With Business Failures Beautifully Low.

New York, Jan. 16.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: The exports in December were probably the largest ever known, and overshadow all other features in the commercial situation. They insure large supplies of money if ever needed, but at present the markets are everywhere well supplied except at Southern points, and better supplied there than a week ago. Treasury disbursements have been large and there is no reason to expect a lack in the supply of money. Another fact of large importance is that the iron output was not diminished in December as is usual, owing to the stoppage of furnaces during the holidays, but was 188,682 tons weekly against 188,135 on Dec. 1 and 167,599 a year ago. The market is fairly active, though the enormous output gives buyers an advantage.

The wool production last year is estimated as considerably larger than that of the year before, but the stocks on hand are not so large, indicating that the consumption in 1891 has been about the same as in 1890. The market shows no important changes. At Baltimore exports of breadstuffs for the last six months of 1891 were in value $155,069,104, a gain of more than $100,000,000 over last year.

Pittsburgh reports no change in the iron market though prices for finished iron are stronger. At Cleveland trade is larger than a year ago, though in some lines inactive, and the tide seems to have turned in pig iron and iron castings. The sales of dry goods, clothing and shoes are larger than a year ago, some increase is seen in barley, 25 cents a bushel, and in corn, 10 cents a bushel, while receipts of wheat and dressed beef are double last year's. There appears to be no curbed meats, lard and cheese, and wool receipts are only half as large as a year ago. Trade at St. Louis is helped by colder weather and at Milwaukee and St. Paul. At Minneapolis the four output is 176,000 barrels for the year, against 110,000 a year ago, and at Duluth sales amounted to $20,000,000.

New Orleans cotton shows some improvement and sales are steady, with money in more active demand. Depression of business at the South on account of low price of cotton still continues. Cotton fell to 7 1/2 cents during the week, the lowest price for 43 years, but has since recovered to 7 3/4 cents, though receipts and stocks are remarkably large.

The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days, number for the United States 287 and Canada 47, or a total of 330, as compared with a total of 435 last week and 424 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 411 representing 263 failures in the United States and 51 in Canada.

A ROYAL RECEPTION. Accorded Egypt's New Khedive Upon His Arrival at Alexandria.

ALEXANDRIA, Jan. 16.—Prince Abbas, the new khedive of Egypt, arrived off this port shortly before midnight. At 8 o'clock this morning the vessel having the young khedive on board steamed in, escorted by several British warships and the thundering of guns from the forts and British and Egyptian ships assembled therein. Prince Abbas received the expressions of sympathy and of congratulation of the Egyptian and foreign officials who were gathered on the quay, and landed for the first time as the khedive of Egypt upon his native soil. He was received with the most enthusiastic welcome by the Egyptian populace and the foreigners and was entertained at a banquet where all the prominent British and Egyptian officials of Alexandria and Cairo were present. At 10 a. m. the new khedive proceeded by rail to Cairo.

CARDINAL MAXIM'S FUNERAL. Which Will Occur Tuesday Next, to be of the Most Solemn Character.

LONDON, Jan. 16.—It has been finally decided that the funeral of Cardinal Manning shall be held at the Brompton oratory on Thursday next. The services will begin at 11 o'clock a. m. Requiem mass will be said by Hon. Wm. Clifford, bishop of Clifton, and the sermon will be preached by Rt. Rev. John C. Healey, bishop of Newport. The music will be Gregorian chant, entirely by the clergy; it will be of the most severe and solemn character. The church, which is one of the most beautiful in London, will be crowded to its capacity. A lofty catafalque has been erected in the center aisle around which the lighted candles will be sent up on wheels, the casket containing the remains will be deposited. The ceremonies will be of the most elaborate character and are expected to last about two hours and a half.

On Tuesday night the body will be transferred to the oratory, where it will lie in state a day longer and be exposed to the view of the public. A limited number of people were admitted today to the late cardinal's residence to view the body.

Destructive Fire at Ososda. Ososda, Mich., Jan. 16.—The most destructive fire Au Sable has ever suffered started in the dry goods store of Dan Rosenthal & Co. at 8 1/2 last evening and was not gotten under control until 1 o'clock this morning after 10 buildings had been burned. All hydrants were frozen up, delaying the fire department half an hour in getting the first water on. The heaviest losers are Rosenthal & Co. and Wilcox & Richards, $20,000 each. The loss on buildings and stock is estimated at $75,000, partially insured.

The Royal Funeral. LONDON, Jan. 16.—According to the present plan the funeral of the duke of Clarence, the late heir presumptive to the throne of England, who died on Thursday morning at Sandringham, will take place on Wednesday next. The final funeral services will, it is expected, take place in St. George's chapel, Windsor castle, at some later date, upon the arrival there of the body will permit.

World's Fair Expenditures. CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—According to Auditor W. K. Akerman's figures the total receipts of the Columbian exposition to Jan. 1 were $3,523,518 and the expenditures $2,647,000. Of the latter amount $2,011,911 was paid out by the construction department.

The foreign department the auditor's report shows that nearly $50,000 has been spent in South America, a greater sum than has been disbursed in all other countries combined.

THE WORLD'S FAIR

The Passage of the Holman Resolution Tends to Cause of Much Anxiety in the Windy City.

Fears Entertained Lest the Resolutions Should Prevent Additional Appropriations for the Fair.

Holman Announces Himself in Favor of a Moderate River and Harbor Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—There seems to be a general relief among members of the house that the Holman anti-subsidy and anti-special appropriation resolutions do not mean as much as they seem. There is much fear among Illinois members that the resolutions may prevent additional appropriations for the World's fair. Mr. Holman has been asked by a number of members whether the resolutions will cut off any appropriations for the fair.

Speaking of this he said: "I cannot answer the question without giving the matter more consideration. The resolution confines the house to expenditures for the departments. This government is one of departments and every cent that is expended ought to be through and by some department. If the fair can be construed to be part of the government an appropriation for it may possibly come within the terms of the resolution, if such is the wish of the house."

"Then, in your own mind the resolution is not positively against the appropriation?" "No, nor is it intended to defeat any proper expenditure of money."

"Would you oppose any appropriation for new ships?" "I don't know as it would go as far as that, but it certainly would be well to complete some of our under-lying outlaying down too many lines of new expenditures. There is not only a general sentiment throughout the country in favor of a more economical administration of affairs, but we are threatened by an actual deficit in the treasury. The sinking fund, it must be remembered, is a pledge of the American people that the public debt will be paid as quickly as possible, and it should be paid each year."

"How about river and harbor improvements?" "I am in favor of a moderate river and harbor bill, but I do not think it ought to go over $1,000,000 or $1,200,000."

Senator Palmer does not think the Holman resolution will have any effect on the application of Chicago for the appropriation for $5,000,000 for the World's fair. "The fair has passed beyond the wildest dreams of even the most sanguine," said he. Chicago has kept her pledge—more than kept it—and this additional expense is necessary by reason of the enlargement of the plans of the exposition.

Into a Raging Furnace. IRONWOOD, Mich., Jan. 16.—G. C. Baker, employed in McClosken's mill here, met with a frightful death yesterday. He was engaged in throwing refuse upon a runway which carries the fuel into the furnace, when he accidentally slipped and fell. His foot caught in one of the cleats of the runway and before the machinery could be stopped and the man extricated from his position he was carried head foremost into the raging furnace. All attempts to check the flames were in vain and before the fire was finally extinguished the man's body was completely cremated. He was a young man and leaves a widow and two children.

Huge Warehouse Burned. NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Fire today destroyed the blacksmith shop at the corner of Bank street and Thirteenth avenue and the huge 7-story building occupied by the Van Tassel warehouse. Frederick Kopf was burned to death. Thirty thousand bushels of oats were consumed and the entire loss is estimated at $250,000.

A Dakota Bank Liquidates. ABERDEEN, S. D., Jan. 16.—The Northwestern bank has gone into liquidation. The officials say that there is plenty of funds to meet the claims of the depositors. The bank started in 1888.

WAS IT MURDER?

Grave Charges Made in Relation to the N. P. Wreck of Yesterday.

It is said today that some very grave charges will be made before the coroner's jury which will investigate the Northern Pacific wreck of yesterday by which Mrs. Ed. Andrews and Miss Wallace lost their lives. One of the allegations will be that the wreck was not caused by a broken rail at all, but that it was due to the criminal negligence of some one connected with the road.

A Herald reporter was today informed by a gentleman who was at Brainerd yesterday and who investigated the matter, that the sleeping car was one which for some time had been condemned as unfit for use, and dangerous on account of a weakness of the trucks. It was given to the Andrews company on account of a scarcity of cars and although its dangerous condition was well known, the desperate chance of its making the trip in safety was taken. There had been another small wreck near by and in a caboose near at hand were 15 laborers who by fortunate chance were able to once begin the work of rescue. But for this fact, they recovered the roof of the Pullman with tools in their possession, not a person in the car could have escaped alive. This chance alone averted one of the worst disasters ever known in Minnesota.

If the facts are as alleged, the story being in part confirmed by a railroad man who was on the scene, the coroner's jury will be very likely to make serious trouble for the person or persons guilty of the terrible negligence which cost two lives and imperiled to others. With regard to the sleeper the difficulty is said to have been that on account of a lack of equilibrium or an imperfect adjustment of the trucks the sleeper was entirely unsafe, and that conductors have often refused to draw it for fear it would leave the track and derail other cars in the train. The tragedy is one which will be searching investigation and which apparently promises sensational results.

CONCORDIA CONCERT. An Interesting Program to be Given Tomorrow Night.

PAULINE HALL OPERA COMPANY. Duluthians will be glad to learn that the Pauline Hall Opera company is at last to come to Duluth. It is without doubt the very best opera organization on the road and will surely be liberally supported by the theater goers of Duluth. The operas that will be given here, which have been selected by Manager Haycock, are "La Belle Helene" and "La Fiacre." Both operas are big New York and Paris successes. The company will here four nights commencing Jan. 25.

A Waterway's Hearing. Letters have been received from Secretary Love, of the Detroit board of trade, asking the Duluth men entitled to go, on what date will best suit them for a hearing before the house and senate committees on the matters discussed at the waterways convention. Duluth is entitled to seven members of the committee, and it is hoped the full delegation can be secured. The Duluth men favor a date about Feb. 1.

The Knott Club. The sleighing party given last evening by the Knott club proved a very enjoyable one. The party drove down to West Duluth and supper was taken at the Phillips. The party consisted of Mrs. Mishler and Mrs. Parsons, the Misses Emma Williams, Maud Smith, Clara Lemieux, Clara Bull, Ora Gridley, Virgie LaVaque, Maud Wigdahl, Ollie Parsons, Lida Mishler, and Messrs. M. Paine, W. Hunter, J. C. Cash, A. H. Wigdahl, E. M. Bull, T. G. Ferguson, C. Lemieux, C. Holliday, R. LaVaque, E. Gridley, E. Johnson, R. Smith Earl Martin and D. Paddock.

To Open Bids. A special meeting of the fire commissioners is being held this afternoon to open bids upon 2500 feet of rubber and cotton hose. Representatives from a large number of manufacturers are here looking after the interests of their firms. The contract will amount to some $200.

You Will Want an Advertisement. In the Herald annual midwinter number. This issue will consist of the regular Weekly Herald, of which 10,000 extra copies will be printed on elegant book paper, handsomely illustrated. POLITICAL POTPOURRI

The People's Party Follows in the Democratic Trail and Names its Leaders at the City Hall Today.

The Man Who Led Them to Victory Two Years Is Named as Their Captain in the Impending Contest.

Mayor Davis Writes a Letter and C. A. Towne Declines to Chase the Star-Kyod Gales of Reform.

The hall which echoed yesterday to democratic victory was waked today by the remarks of the city farmer, known as the "alliance man." Despite the severe storm and the fact that the program had been carefully arranged, there was a good attendance and a considerable degree of interest. The convention was called to order at 2:30 by A. T. Scarlet, who read the call and asked for the nominations for temporary officers. C. A. Parsons was chosen temporary chairman and A. F. Rudolph temporary secretary. On motion the following committee on credentials was appointed: Messrs. Scarlet, Canning and Brown. On permanent organization the committee made up of Messrs. Osburn, Baker and Haskins. It was decided while waiting for reports from these committees that a set of resolutions would be a very proper thing and the following committee was named to formulate a set: Messrs. Rudolph, Hjelm and Blanchard.

The report of the committee on credentials showed that at the ward caucuses last night the following delegates were elected and entitled to seats in the convention:

First ward—K. Bente, J. D. Larson, Chas. Smith, Wm. Wanecka, Frank Osburn, Martin Kuske.

Second ward—A. Tindahl, John Brown, Morrison Bain, A. Kries.

Third ward—Louis Arneson, Louis Frost, Wallace Warner, C. A. Evans, Jens Solen, H. A. Barnham, Herman Luck, Anton Hjelm, A. T. Scarlet.

Fourth ward—Chas. Canning, D. S. Blanchard, J. H. Baker, Anton Kingsrud, P. O. Solheim, C. Spagno, A. C. Parsons, C. E. Shannon, Louis Stein.

Fifth ward—John Kildwin, Alex. Kennedy, Aron Olson, Andrew Erickson, Paul C. Linden, E. D. Drum, C. W. Wilson, Henry Johnson, Geo. Close, Carl Elison, N. O. Nelson.

Sixth ward—Henry Haskins, Joe Saue, D. Lewis, A. Kaen, J. Fink, J. R. Livill.

The report of the committee on credentials was received, and on motion the members of the city committee were delegates at large. Some absences were reported and on motion the chairman of the ward delegations were empowered to cast the full vote of the ward.

The committee on permanent organization reported making the following recommendations: That the temporary officers permanent and reported also an order of business by which the report of the committee on resolutions was made to proceed the nomination of officers.

The resolutions set forth four declarations:

1. An endorsement of the state and national platforms.

2. The strict enforcement of all laws on the state and national platforms.

3. The abolition of the contract system in city work.

4. That no more city franchises be granted.

Chairman Parsons read a neat little essay on municipal politics, which was received with polite attention, and then Mr. Parsons had fulfilled this duty which he always feels due from him on such occasions, the convention was ready to proceed to business.

Following are the probable aldermanic nominees:

First Ward, Matt Carroll; Second ward, A. F. Rudolph; Third ward, W. A. Barnum; Fourth ward, Alex. Crawford; Fifth ward, C. O. Nelson; Sixth ward, T. B. Perry.

Nominations for mayor were called for and Mr. Rudolph presented the name of M. J. Davis. The nomination was seconded from all parts of the hall and as expected was made by acclamation. Chas. Canning and Henry Haskins were appointed as a committee to wait on Mr. Davis, who appeared and thanked the convention.

R. S. Powell was nominated on the third ballot for municipal judge. E. L. Wingie will probably be named for special judge.

Mr. Davis was seen before the nomination was made and asked what would be his attitude in regard to it. As usual, he refused to make any statement for publication, but from what he said and from other sources, there is no doubt but that he will accept. "If a candidate," Mr. Davis said, "I shall conduct my campaign upon the platform adopted when I was a candidate before. My policy will be the same as heretofore. I have made some errors, which would be remedied, but I see no reason for a radical change. I say now as I have said that if the republicans could have assured me that a man would be nominated who would carry out my policy, I would have withdrawn. I am not certain I would not have made place for Mr. Towne. As the circumstances now are, my duty in the case seems plain."

THE REPUBLICAN SITUATION.

A Meeting of Leaders Last Night Without Definite Result.

The condition of affairs in the republican camp is worse than ever. It may be safely stated that Mr. Long will not be nominated and that if he is his name will be withdrawn by the city committee. Beyond that there is little that can be said. A love feast was held last night at which a number of the bosses were present and the situation was discussed. It was warmly discussed, but and but for the good offices of Mr. Stuphin might have resulted in a fight in earnest. Everybody was against Long, but beyond that there was no harmony. Several names were discussed, but things only grew worse. Finally the name of C. A. Towne was presented and as about the only compromise this name was suggested. Mr. Towne, however, it is said, will under no circumstances accept or allow his name to be pushed and the republican camp is as bad a condition as ever. It is not impossible just now that Mr. Davis may after all be the republican nominee. The following petition which was shown The Herald this morning may aid in this matter:

"M. J. Davis, Dear Sir: We the undersigned, in view of your record as mayor of Duluth during the past two years, would respectfully request you to permit your name to be used as a candidate for election to this position at the coming municipal election."

W. W. Brant, J. W. Norton, R. H. Brice, W. S. Washburn, H. H. Hanford, C. H. Clague, W. H. Peck, Ward Ave., W. S. Merritt.

G. A. Elder, Andrew Shaw, J. H. Cook, H. F. Howe, E. N. Felt, E. J. Chapman, H. W. Van Valkenburg, L. H. Whipple, T. H. Hanks, Jr., J. M. Anderson.

The following is a copy of a letter sent by Mayor Davis today to the republican city committee:

"In reply to your request asking me not to allow my name to be used in connection with the coming mayoralty contest, but to work and vote for Mr. C. A. Towne, I have to say I was elected two years ago to the office of mayor by an independent movement for the purpose of securing the equal enforcement of the existing laws. I have been in hopes that a candidate could be found who would satisfy the people who elected me and who supported my administration, as I shun, prefer that someone other than myself should continue the work which I have begun. My friends are not satisfied with the name of Mr. Towne. My friends were not asked to join in selecting him to take my place, but his selection was in the main by men who voted against me and have not approved of my administration. I should consider it an act of ingratitude to my friends and supporters to abandon them in favor of a candidate so brought forward and who may not represent their views regarding proper conduct of municipal affairs. Yours respectfully, M. J. DAVIS."

The letter will be considered at a meeting of the republican committee to be held this evening.

C. A. TOWNE DECLINES.

Fully Appreciates the Honor, But Private Interests Take Precedence to Politics.

The name of C. A. Towne having been used in connection with the republican nomination for mayor, that gentleman was seen today by a Herald representative and asked his position in the premises, to which he made wise reply as follows:

"I am deeply sensible of the honor done me in this spontaneous and utterly unexpected suggestion. The office of mayor of this splendid city is one of the highest in the state and a worthy object of ambition to seek. I am a republican, and believe earnestly in the great principles of that party. But I am a lawyer, and it is my first ambition to gain a creditable standing in my profession. I am young at the bar, and to accept of this nomination, assuming for the argument's sake that I could get it, would be to destroy my business and to commit myself to a season of professional rustiness, which you would express for me to the numerous and influential republicans who first suggested this matter, and to the others who have since proffered their assistance, my sincere thanks for the high compliment they do me, and I regret that business and professional considerations of inexorable force compel me to decline to undertake the canvass."

WORLD OF COMMERCE

The Stock Market Opened Firm and After a Slight Reaction Closed a Point Above Yesterday.

The Weekly Bank Statement Shows Finances in Good Condition With a Gain of Over Five Million in Reserve.

The Grain Market Opened Stronger and Showed a General Advance, Closing the Week in Favorable Condition.

The market opened much stronger here this morning at an advance of 1/8c on May and noted dull but firm. Early cables brought encouraging news and orders for wheat. Sellers of wheat, according to cables, were holding off at higher prices, while bids were from 1/16c to lower early in the day.

Bradstreet reports the exports of wheat and flour from both coasts for the week ending Jan. 10, 1932, at 1,483,723 bu. corn, 3,321,415 bu. Special cables from Bernebohm with breadstuffs total in this country indicates wheat stocks decreased 2,324,000 bu. and gained an increase of 4,000 at 90c.

The total of Australia, North America, the United Kingdom and Europe Jan. 1 was about 16,000,000 bu. against 115,000,000 bu. a year ago, 120,000,000 bu. in 1890 and 131,000,000 bu. in 1895. The shipments from the four ports yesterday were light, amounting to 168,477 bu. The receipts of wheat at Duluth will be smaller for the week than for any other since the beginning of the crop year of 1891. Trading here was about equally divided between May and cash, but was dull.

Cash No. 1 hard wheat closed steady at 85c. On track 87c. Cash No. 1 northern sold early for 84 1/2c and went up to 85 1/2c, closing steady at that figure. On track closed at 86c. Cash No. 2 northern sold early at 78c and advanced to 80c, closing at 79c. No. 3 spring sold at 77c in the first hour and closed up at 78c. Rejected closed at 61c. Democratic National Convention
Boomers Rapidly Falling In Line
For the Pending Fray.

Senator Hill's Insubstantiality the Only Obstacle Between St. Paul and the Much Coveted Prize.

Cincinnati's Chances for Securing the Honor Seriously Handicapped by an Unfavorable Climate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The democratic committee will meet in Washington next Thursday to select the place for holding the next national convention. During the next two days the early morning trains arriving here will bring large delegations of boomers from the various cities competing for the honor. Cincinnati's advance guard arrived today and have headquarters at the Arlington, Milwaukee, Kansas City, New York, San Francisco and St. Paul will also have headquarters at the Arlington. Mayor Sommers and W. A. Walker, of the Milwaukee delegation, are already here. Delegations from Kansas City, Indianapolis, San Francisco and New York will be here tomorrow. St. Paul has a delegation here and it will be strengthened by a committee from Minneapolis. Mr. Michael Duran, of St. Paul, member of the democratic committee from Minnesota, is at the Arlington. He is one of the most enthusiastic workers and says the convention will go to St. Paul if Senator Hill keeps his hands off.

The next democratic convention will go to the city, "which Mr. Hill designates, but if the senator from New York follows the advice he has given he will stand aside and permit the contest to be a fair-for-all fight without any advantage to St. Paul. The great trouble with Senator Hill is that he does not know when to stop or when he has enough. He now has New York, Tammany, the speaker of the house and all the committee chairmanships, and his latest victory is the capture of the house restaurant. He now wants, it seems, the convention placed where he designates. St. Paul wants the convention and will take proper care of the house and the committee chairmanships, and his latest victory is the capture of the house restaurant. He now wants, it seems, the convention placed where he designates. St. Paul wants the convention and will take proper care of the house and the committee chairmanships, and his latest victory is the capture of the house restaurant.

Mr. Atkins, a Vermont member, is in the city and is understood to be in favor of New York city. Brad Smalley is also here. Mr. Smalley was formerly a member of the committee, and he is now signed, Mr. Atkins was appointed. Mr. Smalley is supposed to be here for the purpose of coaching his successor, and there is no secret as to Mr. Smalley's choice. He is for any location Senator Gorman wants. The senator favors New York, hence Mr. Smalley is for New York, and the attitude of Mr. Atkins can be very easily guessed.

Henry Watterson will cast the vote of Kentucky for Cincinnati. Much objection is made to Cincinnati, however, for the reason that it is too hot there at convention time and for the further and more potent reason that if the convention is taken there it is the intention of the politicians of that section to spring Senator Carlisle as the candidate.

STRANGE THIN FICTION.

A Georgia Man, Born Blind, Suddenly Regains His Sight.
THOMASVILLE, Ga., Jan. 18.—R. T. Summers was blind, but now he can see. His history is an interesting and strange one. For a long time, Summers, who is a white man, was a well known character in Thomasville. He was totally blind, having been born so, and there was no difference between day and night to him. Summers was unusually intelligent for one so handicapped and made a good living at selling songs and mending chairs. About a month ago Summers decided to marry and he and a respectable widow were seen together. After the wedding the couple left here going to Alabama. By a fortunate chance they visited Birmingham. An oculist there examined his eyes and offered to cure him. There was an operation followed by days in a dark room, and then Summers could see as well as any one. The world must have had a strange appearance to him, and it would be interesting to know just how recent it came to his idea of how it would look. Summers' eyes had just been reversed from what they ought to have been. The pupils were turned inward and the back of the eye outward. Last week when he returned to Thomasville he was in the midst of friends without knowing them.

A RUDE AWAKENING.

An Ohio Family Blown From Their Beds by Natural Gas.
LANCASTER, Ohio, Jan. 18.—At 6:30 this morning occurred the most disastrous explosion of natural gas in the history of natural gas here. The residence of Judge John S. Braze, a 2-story brick on North Columbus street, was leveled to the ground. Mrs. Braze, four grown children and the servant were in bed at the time. Judge Braze being the only occupant stirring. He was blown 60 feet across the street, where he was found unconscious and bleeding from several wounds about the head. It seems almost a miracle that none of the sleeping occupants of the house were seriously injured. The walls fell outward, and this probably saved their lives. Windows were broken for several squares around and the organ in an adjoining church was ruined.

The shock was felt for miles around. A leak in a pipe, it is supposed, filled the cellar and library with gas, which was ignited from the grate. Loss, $5,000.

A Noted Stallion Dead.
JUNEAU, Wis., Jan. 18.—The noted stallion Badger Boy, (2:26 1/4), owned by John Rowell, of Beaver Dam, and valued at $15,000, is dead.

LADIES WHO WOULD VOTE.

Fair Apostles of Woman's Suffrage Address the Judiciary Committee.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Mrs. Susan B. Anthony, Miss Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Miss Lucy Stone and Miss Howell Hooker appeared before the house committee on judiciary today in support of the joint resolution introduced in the house by Greenleaf, of New York, proposing an amendment to the constitution extending the right to women to vote at all federal elections.

Each lady addressed the committee, advocating the passage of the resolution. The resolution submits to the legislatures of the several states the proposed amendment to the constitution. The committee took the matter under consideration.

A Wonderful Mirage.
LEWISTON, Mont., Jan. 18.—A wonderful mirage was distinctly visible near this city yesterday afternoon. The mirage has caused considerable alarm, because it is feared that the Indians may have started on the war path and encountered a party of hunters. The mirage was seen during the afternoon the hunters and the men could be seen receding to the west and east. The Indians were apparently well supplied with ammunition and by superior numbers they were able to capture a party of a dozen hunters. Midwinter mirages in the clear, crisp atmosphere of the Rockies are rare, and phenomena of this character is usually a reproduction of real events. So far as could be ascertained last night the Indians on the reservations are peaceable.

Victory for the State.
MADISON, Wis., Jan. 18.—Judge Newman filed his opinion in the great state treasury cases with the clerk of the Dane county circuit court this morning. The decision is in favor of the state in every point, giving all that the state claimed. The cases tried were one against E. C. McFetridge, state treasurer, for the official term from 1884 to 1886, and one against H. B. Harshaw for the two years from 1886 to 1888. As test cases, involving all the points covered by all the cases from 1878 to 1891. The cases tried were one against E. C. End of the Garza Revolt.
LAREDO, Texas, Jan. 18.—It is believed here that the Garza revolution is at an end and the armed men said to be moving through the country are supposed to be Garza's men on their way to their homes. Garza himself is thought to be in the neighborhood of Laredo and it is the opinion of some that he may surrender at Corpus Christi.

Senator Quay's Libel Suit.
BEAVER, Pa., Jan. 18.—Senator Quay's libel suit against the Star was called in the federal court this morning. At the time of the noon adjournment the jury had been impaneled and consists of 11 Republicans and one democrat. The court room was well filled with spectators.

Fatal Coasting Party.
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 18.—Saturday night a crowd of Nashville people were coasting on McGavock street, when Miss Mary Duncan was thrown overboard and fatally injured. Mrs. Mattie Newman, of Clarksville, was also fatally hurt. Henry Farrow dashed into a passenger buggy near the Union depot, breaking his hip. He died shortly afterward. Several other accidents are reported but they are not final.

A Novel Suicide.
CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—Mrs. Mary Simpson committed suicide while trying to insure Saturday evening by drenching and hanging down her clothing on the foot of Ohio street, where she was found frozen to death.

Pugilistic Sabbath Observance.
NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—The bantam weights Daly and McCarthy met in a finish fight Sunday morning at Bath Beach for a $100 purse. McCarthy won in the third round.

Wreck on the Omaha.
MILWAUKEE, Jan. 18.—A dispatch to the Journal says a passenger train was wrecked on the Omaha road near River Falls, Wis., last afternoon. Eight persons were injured.

The Pro-Cathedral.
At the pro-cathedral yesterday morning Rev. Father Corbett preached an eloquent sermon on the "Priest and the Priesthood." The priest portrayed in glowing terms the grandeur and dignity of the mission of the catholic priest in preaching the word of God, all day long, bidding farewell to father and mother and country he goes forth in the world to dedicate all that he is and all that he has in the holy service of Christ for the salvation of souls. Look at him by the bedside of the dying man, to whom all seems despairing words of Christ, a consolation into his soul, and as he was presenting to him a vision of heaven in the beauty, having received his commission from Christ, the catholic priest, with the divine authority vested in him, goes forth expounding the sacred truths of God, leaving no man, for he is the only man that has the power to preach the word of God. As St. Paul, the inspired writer, says: "How can they preach unless they be sent?" "The catholic priest," he said, "is the only man on earth that date come forward and tell the people their faults." At the close of the sermon the annual collection for the support of the seminary at Minneapolis was taken up.

To Test the Hose.
No award of the contract for the 2500 feet of hose wanted by the fire department was made by the commissioners at their meeting last Saturday. So many proposals were received that the board was unable to decide which should be accepted. It was determined that each competitor should bring to Duluth a sample of the hose he offered, for a test trial and the contract be awarded to the manufacturer making the best showing. The test will be made in February.

WAR HOROSCOPE

A Member of the Foreign Affairs Committee Expresses His Views on the War Situation.

After Years of Idleness, League Is and Becomes the Scene of Unusual Activity.

Pursuant to Orders From Washington the Monitor Montank is Rapidly Preparing for Service.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—In an interview with a reporter of the United Press today on the probabilities of a war with Chile Representative Rayner, of Maryland, said:
"I hope that war may be averted. Every means should be used for a pacific settlement of this question before this extreme remedy is resorted to. The testimony should be carefully scrutinized and the question as to how far the government of Chile was justified in the attack upon the American sailors should be critically examined. The report of the judicial investigation and especially the recommendations of the President will have great weight in this matter. Chile was not in the revolutionary condition that she is in this whole question. It is a day by day telegram. The whole subject lies within a very narrow limit."
"If a concerted attack was made on the crew of our vessel, aided by the officers in Valparaiso and the legal and executive branches of the Chilean government have justified this proceeding, and have not only done this, but have sent insulting communications upon the subject, our duty would be to plain one, involving as it does the rights and honors of the republic. As a member of the foreign affairs committee, I have not arrived, and shall not come to any conclusion until the evidence is submitted and time is given to deliberate upon it."

PREPARING FOR WAR.

League Island Navy Yard the Scene of Unusual Activity.
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 18.—After years of comparative idleness the League Island navy yard today began to show signs of life and industry. In pursuance of orders from Washington the formidable monitor Montank will be repaired at once for service. A force of men was put to work this morning sufficient to begin the work of repair. The work, though Cap Coghlan, acting commandant at League Island, remarked that if urgent necessity required it, the Montank could be equipped in a week. Cap Coghlan added that the two other monitors at League Island—the Nahant and Jason—could also be gotten ready for service in a week.

Though the orders from the navy department were brief and unexplained, the officers at the yard naturally construed them as bearing on the Chilean troubles.

CONGRESS IN SESSION.

Unimportant Business Occupies the Attention of Both Houses.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The seventh day of the session began today with no rules for the guidance of the house and its presiding officer still within the grasp of the grip. A number of executive documents and communications and messages from the senate were presented and referred.

Mr. Hoar asked unanimous consent to have the resolution introduced by him providing for an investigation of the "sweating" system taken from the committee on rules and sent to the committee on manufactures. Agreed.

Mr. Kelley, of Pennsylvania, introduced a resolution asking the secretary of the treasury for the money available for the Wood's fair, and he made no statement of the money expended, adopted.

Mr. Mills returned from Texas Saturday night much improved in health and was tendered quite an ovation when he appeared upon the floor of the house this afternoon.

Mr. Durbin offered a resolution authorizing the world's fair committee to prepare a bill of exchange, which may be deemed necessary. Mr. Outis objected. Referred.

Mr. Hinkhead, of Alabama, offered a resolution to move the clerk's document room in the basement to the terrace and add the vacant room to the restaurant. Mr. Holman objected and it was referred.

Mr. Springer asked unanimous consent to have the memorial of the national league for the protection of American institutions, including a proposed amendment to the constitution printed in the Record, but Mr. Butler, of Iowa, objected and it was referred.

The Senate.

Senator Sherman, who had been absent during the recent senatorial canvass and election in Ohio, on returning to his seat at the opening of the senate today received the congratulations of his associates on his re-election.

The vice-president laid some department communications before the senate. The acting secretary of the treasury replying to a resolution calling for the proceedings and correspondence of the board of supervising inspectors of steam vessels at its last session on the subject of life-saving appliances replied that the whole correspondence, with two exceptions (which he now supplied), was included in the appendix to the printed report of the board which he now enclosed.

Architect Edward Clark, of the capitol, in response to the resolution of the senate respecting alleged defective ventilation and plumbing dangerous to health in the senate wing of the building, reported that he considered the senate chamber and corridors well ventilated and also all the committee rooms originally constructed for that purpose.

Wheelmen's Tournament.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—Famous professional wheelmen will try to break the world's record recently made at Boston at battery D this week. The race which will be a six days, 48 hours, eight hours per day affair, will open at 2:30 this afternoon.

Judge Ruger Buried.
SYRACUSE, N. Y., Jan. 18.—The funeral of chief judge of the court of appeals, Wm. C. Ruger, was largely attended this afternoon at St. Paul's cathedral.

ONE OF THE SABINE SUITS.

The Supreme Court Holds Individuals Liable for Corporate Debts.
ST. PAUL, Jan. 18.—An important decision was handed down from the supreme court today in the case of Myron McKusick vs. Seymour, Sabine & Co., wherein the judgment of the lower court is affirmed. The court decided that "the individual liability of stockholders for corporate debts may be enforced in a sequestration proceeding against the corporation." The object of the complaint is to recover in this sequestration proceeding from the stockholders on the individual liability for corporate debts under section 3, article 10 of the constitution.

O'Brien Denounces Redmond.

DUBLIN, Jan. 18.—Wm. O'Brien, M. P., the McCarthyite leader, has written a letter denouncing John Redmond, recently elected to parliament from Waterford in the Parrellet interest, for his wholesale abuse of himself, Mr. O'Brien, and of his political associates.

Mr. O'Brien suggests that the whole question of Mr. Redmond's and his own relations with the late Mr. Parnell should be submitted to arbitration, with the understanding that the one whom the decision adversely affects shall retire from public life.

Collision at Sea.

LONDON, Jan. 18.—During a gale which prevailed yesterday the brig Wellington was dashed against the stern of the Huntsman, a British steamship. One side of the Wellington was stove in and she sank a few minutes after the accident. Two of her crew were drowned.

SOVEREIGN'S STORY.

A Northern Pacific Official's Tale of the Andrews' Horror.
Assistant Superintendent A. J. Sovereign, of the Northern Pacific railroad, called at The Herald office yesterday and among other things said: "I want to enlighten you a little about the item in Saturday's Herald regarding the Jonesville accident. Your reporter is entirely misinformed and never exceeds his speed limit. That he obeyed orders is seen from the fact that he was reported Aikin 4 hours and 10 minutes behind No. 9, (at 3 o'clock) and the accident occurred at 3:55 as nearly as we can ascertain. The night dispatcher reported all his wires grounded at that time and Jason could not be gotten ready for service in a week."

At the request held on Saturday at Brainerd the Northern Pacific road was exonerated of any blame in the matter or from any special liability. The injured people are all reported as doing nicely.

A COLD WAVE COMING.

Another Zephyr With the Mercury Forty Below is Fanning the Northwest.
The cold wave of last week is being repeated again by another which is now moving down from the Northwest with temperatures ranging from 20° to 40° below zero. The coldest place is Winnipeg 44° below, followed by Battleford 42°, Fort Buford, St. Vincent, Qu'Appelle and Miles City 40°, Bismarck, Moorhead and Huron 34°, Fort Arthur 22°, Pierre 28°, North Platte 24°, Dakota and St. Paul 18°, Des Moines and Kansas City 8° and Denver 6°. Above zero the warmest places are Cincinnati 10°, Chicago 3°, Buffalo 30°, Milwaukee 8°, Chicago 25°, St. Louis 12°, Fort Smith, Ark. 10° and Marquette 6°.

Heavy snow has fallen over the Southwest and is still falling at Marquette, Milwaukee, Chicago, Fort Huron, Cleveland, Cincinnati, St. Louis and Fort Smith. Over the Northwest it is generally clear.

The highest temperature here yesterday was 9° above zero. Local forecast: Fair and colder.

A RAIN OF ROCKS.

Careless Blasting Causes a Shower of Rocks Which Might Have Had Serious Results.
A piece of criminal carelessness to which the attention of the police department is called was a dynamite explosion at the corner of Superior street and Second avenue west at noon today. Where the excavation is being made for the new Pantan & Watson building the frozen clay is being blown out with dynamite. At the blast in question none of the necessary precautions seem to have been taken. The place was covered with a few small poles, but they were of no more use than tooth picks. The force of the explosion threw the chunks of frozen clay, hard as rock, for a block in both directions, and there was a regular rain of them. One or two passers by were struck and knocked down, but no one hurt at all seriously.

The Weather.

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, DULUTH, MINN., Jan. 20.
The cold wave has moved to over the Eastern part of the country and low temperatures are reported from that section, it being zero at Buffalo and zero, 2 below at Port Huron and 6 below at Cleveland. In the Northwest, it is everywhere above zero except over Manitoba, where it ranges from zero to 12 below. Other temperatures are: Helena, 30; Minneapolis, 25;
Port Arthur, 25; Hiram, 18; Moorhead,
15; Fort Snare, 10; Duluth, 10; St. Paul, 15; La Crosse, 65; Milwaukee, Chicago and Kansas City, 50.
Light snow has fallen at scattered places over the country, more than one inch.
An area of low atmospheric pressure is passing north of Lake Superior and will be followed by an area of medium high pressure with a comparatively high temperature.
From a minimum of 25 below yesterday morning the temperature slowly climbed to zero by 2
p. m., then during the night fell to 15 below,
raining again this morning to 35 above.

RIGHT AND WRONG.

Our underground contemporary, the News, in its treatment of the municipal situation this morning, in which it wax-eth poetic, is wrong on Shakespeare, but right on Long. There can be no doubt that Charles is all that our neighbor poet told him, but the bard of Avon like the Herald, loved all mankind and never said harsh things in politics. By permission of the News we would suggest that it was our friend Dryden, and not the more immortal bard, who with a prophetic vision of our most learned and val-ianting gale and water advocate, and snow ordinance statesman, the alderman
from the Second ward, and air-presumptive to the majority throne, penned
these pleasing, truth-fraught words:

A man so various that he seemed to be
Not one, but all mankind's outposts;
Still in opinion, always in the wrong,
Was everything by starts and nothing long;
But in the course of one revolving moon
Was chameleon, fisher, fowler, and buffoon.

While the Herald cannot support
the Augustan pretender, it will not sit idly by and see the poets misquoted to his hurt and ultimate undoing. The News well knew that to array the bard of Avon against any man, however worthy, in our peerless town meant inevitable defeat.

The News knew, as all The Herald
readers surely know, that Shakespeare's genius never perched on so small a theme.

We charge the News with wilfully perverting truth to the injury of one who would willingly be its guide, philosopher
and friend.

It scratched the name of Dryden from the text and inserted therein the name of Shakespeare.

It claims privately that it is acquainted with the poets, but when occasion requires it publicly garbles them in an unworthy cause.

Can any dependence be placed in such a paper?

Can the republicans afford to place a paper of that character in a position of such great importance and responsibility?

The Herald does not believe they can afford this to disgrace themselves and their party, and trusts that when they survey this picture of error and willfulness they will no longer do so.

The only reference Shakespeare ever made to Charles Long was by quoting his noble advice to Humane Henry Haskins, of Huron street, in which our En-dian air apparent is made to say:

And—when I am forgotten as I shall be,
And no mention of me shall be heard of,
Say I taught thee:

Say, Charles, that once told the ways of glory,
And scoured all the depths and shoals of honor,
Found thee a way, out of the track, to rise like
a wave and ebb and flow through the maelstrom of life, and that that taught me.
Henry, I charge thee, fling away ambition.

Vick's floral guide for 1892 is at hand.
From it we learn that the fashion in sweet corn this year will be a longer cob
with a Prince Albert suit and silk trimmings. Peas will wear a taller pole and the fashionable sets will have nine in a pod. Potatoes will live as usual in a lugub, with a blossom on the door knob. That domestic equine vegetable, horseradish, will not try to climb the fence, while the gourd will roost higher than ever. The onion will not appear much in public, but will make itself useful around home. The water lily still stems the tide, while the calla lily will occupy a front seat in the window. Cabbage in this climate will wear their clothes high in the neck, while asparagus
like cigarettes will grow in stores at ten cents a bunch. Gooseberries will have their worse side out, and grapes will be bunched like the hits in our last year's club. Lettuce will be confined to its bed till late in the season, and David Ericson was unintentionally omitted from the mention of his works by The Herald. Mr. Ericson developed artistic taste and talent as a child and is yet

but a young man with a most promising future in the highest walks of his profession.

A NOVEL TUNNEL.

The Herald is in receipt of a communication from Mr. E. E. Clark on the canal bridge question in which he suggests what he thinks would be a cheap and satisfactory tunnel. He would have the city buy a long whaleback from Capt. McDougall's fleet of wave riders, cut the ends off square to permit entrance and sink it as a tunnel in the bottom of the canal. The ends could be extended to make the tunnel as long as needed, and the bottom of the vessel paved with rock which together with rock retained by shelves on the top and sides would sink and hold the monster down.

This, it is said, would probably cost not more than $250,000 and could be put in between now and the opening of navigation. The Herald is not a tunnel builder, but gives this suggestion to its readers, all of whom are experts in that line, for their consideration. Perhaps now that a wide open policy is under consideration, Capt. McDougall might consent to build a boat with both ends
out, especially adapted for this business. The whaleback is a duck and we have no doubt would give to the student. Let the discussion proceed and Capt. McDougall may yet take out another patent not for crossing the ocean
but for crossing the canal.

Senator Arthur P. Gorman, of Maryland, yesterday, by a total vote of 100 to 9, was nominated in both houses of the legislature to succeed himself in the United States senate. The two houses met in joint session today to formally elect him. His victory in the election, ably assisted by the tin schedule of the McKinley bill which fell so heavily on the canning interests of Baltimore,
was the most overwhelming in the past decade and placed him high in the estimation of his party in that state though for years he has been bitterly and justly fought by a faction of his own party in the Monumental city. The Australian voting system of that state, which is more simple and perfect than our own,
made him impossible, and the result was a free expression of the sentiments of the people. The opposition to the tin tariff swept every congressional district, though the republicans before held half of them.

We don't know by what authority our chippier contemporary, the Tribune, made Masonry and the G. A. R. into the municipal campaign, but whatever the reason, such action should be frowned down. We regret it the more because the candidate for whose benefit it is used is a most worthy man. But membership in the G. A. R., or a hundred degrees in Masonry, can in no way enhance one's fitness for a judgeship and should on no account be dragged into the campaign. That it is done is a humiliating reflection on both those orders. They are fraternal, not political, organizations,
and to use them as political tools of trade is to rob them of public esteem.
We hope this course will not be persisted in.

The Tribune says the republicans are going to stand as a unit for Charles Alexander Long, alderman from the Second ward, candidate for mayor, and ex-officio
deputy sheriff editor of that sheet.
What our deadly parallel contemporary evidently meant to say is that the republicans will stand for Augustus like an auxiliary digit, alias a cipher. This is the way they will stand, Charles himself
being the end man: oooooo.

N. A. Gearhart is a candidate for the republican nomination as special municipal judge before the convention tomorrow evening and the convention tomorrow, G. H. Holden is also in the field for second prize, Judge Hanks having tripped gaily into the wider arena for first place.
Mr. Gearhart is every inch a judge, and his candidacy should be looked upon with favor by our republican friends.
Mr. Holden is a capable gentleman, too,
who would fit in nicely as private secretary.

The republican primaries tonight and the convention tomorrow afternoon will settle the majority nomination for that party. Should the convention choose Charles Long his alleged friends would make short work of him. We like to be sincere and therefore caution Charles that he is being led like a lamb to the slaughter.

All candidates for office can address
the large crowd tonight by the use of the five cents. It is hoped they will take all their friends with them and make the closing entertainment a profitable and artless exhibition of themselves.

That was a joyous gathering at the Bethel last night when many parents
and their little ones gathered in to study
the art loan exhibit and hear the impromptu recitations. We love the Bethel for the hearts it gladdens.

The democratic national committee
meets in Washington tomorrow to name
the city in which the national convention of its party shall be held. The outlook is now more favorable to St. Paul than at any time before.

Our republican friends should chide
mildly the economy in referring to the mat-tering always that the soldiers of simplicity have a depleted high tariff treasury to draw from.

As Jacob's name was changed to Israel
so Kittel Halvorsen's name will now be changed to Griddle as he has become the leader of a great pancake race.

The republican primaries will be held from 7 till 8:30 o'clock tonight and every republican interested in good government should attend.

The various candidates for stalls in the municipal grid are making a still hot in a game of hide and sneak.

Don't drag fraternity into the fray,
boys, but make it a clean contest with prayers for the winner.

The candidate who gets the longest poll knocks the preliminaries.

Man needs but little help below,
Nor needs that little Long;
But 'tis so in the case.

Some Great Names.
(London Truth.)

Bonaparte, who was a man of keen and quick perception, never chose, if he could help it, a man with a poor nose for a place of great responsibility.
Marshal Ney had a poor nose, and was incapable of conceiving a plan of battle.

The Chosen People have big noses,
and are not liable to colds in the head.
Massena, the most successful of all
Bonaparte's marshals, was a large nosed Jew.

Kernadotte, the most clever in intrigue
and the least given to hero worship, was another.

Gambetta had a large nose and a small amount of brain.
The same thing may be said of that greatest literary artist that France ever produced—Renan.

Jules Ferry is small brained and big nosed.

Jules Simon has a big brain and a big nose, and is, taking all in all, one of the ablest of living Frenchmen.

The Princess Clemantine, whom I look upon as a woman of great capacity, has the large, hooked nose of the seventeenth century Bourbons and Condés.

A Last Invention.
(The Westminster.)

"At the last, tenderly,
From the grasp of the powerful fortress
locks,
From the clasp of the knitted locks, from the
grasp of the wall closed doors,
Let me be wafted.

Let me go peacefully forth;
Just as I am, with the locks—
wafted soft and low.
Wafted soft and low, O soul!

Tenderly, be not impatient, (Strong is your hand, O mortal flesh!
Leave us your hand, O love!)

The voyage aloft hand he pictures
in lines graphic and pathos.
"Whispers of heavenly death murmured I hear,
Lullaby of night, lullaby of death,
Footsteps gently ascending, mystical breeze
Ripples of unseen rivers, side of a current flow
(Or is it the flowing of tears?) the measured pace, just now, great cloud masses
Leaving us slowly they melt, silently swelling
and rising,
With a time a half-diminished, sudden far-off
star,
Appearing and disappearing.

(Some partition rather, some solemn, immortal birth;
On the other hand, to stay impetuous
Some soul is passing over.)

Don't Like Sherry as Editor.
(Stillwater Gazette.)

The sheriff of St. Louis county is having considerable newspaper experience
made from the Tribune and the Duluth News and Tribune, but we hope it is only temporary, as we believe there are other men in Duluth better adapted to the business. When the newspaper business of that city resolves itself into a morning and evening paper,
then there will no doubt be money in the business for both papers.

Making an Empire.
"In 1871, the German Empire was proclaimed." That is the official date of its creation. But it had been a good deal longer making. From when Frederick the Great made for Prussia a name and place among the great powers of Europe, to the time when Von Moltke and Bismarck were preparing the master strokes of diplomacy and arms; till Sadova revealed to astonished Europe, Prussia as the superior of Austria. Five years more, and Napoleon Third stood up to try conclusions with the new power. How was he overwhelmed and swept away as by a sudden whirlwind is a matter of history
and yet it seems far back in time.
In the last 25 years the railroads have made the West a giant empire, with mighty social, commercial and political power. Foremost among them has been the Burlington system, whose
roads have made the West a giant empire, with mighty social, commercial and
political power. Foremost among them

HOW TO KEEP STRONG

The Advice of the Best of Ball Players.

George Wright the Famous Short
Stop Takes Paine's Cereley.

The Crack Cricketer Was Troubled
With a Common Complaint.

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 19.—The head of the well known firm of Wright & Ditson,
dealers in athletic supplies, is Mr.
George Wright.

He is a prince among gentlemen athletes. Once he was known as the king of baseball players and to this day the game has not produced a shortstop equal to him. But while Mr. Wright's interest in baseball is as great as ever, he is now playing cricket, and is one of the best cricketers in the country.

If one should ask a member of the Boston Athletic club to name the typical athlete, a man with a mind and a sound body,
energetic, even tempered,
courageous, he would name the name of George Wright. No men are more watchful of their health in these days of high salaries
and hence competitions on the ball field
than the players of this great American game.

George Wright would be the last man to give them poor advice. He would be the last man to take a drop of harmful medicine.

Says Mr. Wright: "Last spring I did not feel in the best of health. I do not mean to say that this is strange, because most people during the past season have been out of sorts, but I am troubled with a dread, languid feeling, a thing quite unusual to me.

"I was not what might be called sick,
but I was not well. A friend recommended me to try something of which he spoke in the highest terms. I am in the habit of relying on my constitution to bring me through, but I determined to follow my friend's advice.

"I must say that I am glad I did so, for I found it benefited me greatly, and I am taking it now, even while out of doors, and indulging in my regular exercise. This is what Paine's cereley compound did for me.

It is the experience of thousands—
Paine's cereley compound makes the weak strong.

Call for the Republican City Convention.

All duly elected delegates to the Republican
City Convention will meet on the evening of Jan. 19, at the city hall, Duluth, Minn., on Thursday, the 19th day of January, 1892, at 8 o'clock

BANKS AND BANKING.

The Statement of the Banking Business for the Year 1891 Shows Very Large Increases.

In Statement of General Financial Depression Capital Has Increased and Dividends Been Paid.

The increase in Capital for the Year 20 Per Cent, but More is Still Needed.

The record of the banking institutions of Duluth in 1891 has been a remarkably good one considering certain contingencies which occurred at the close of the year 1890. Owing to the financial troubles then prevalent throughout the country, two banks failed here, causing more or less distress in all financial institutions. The Bank of Duluth was spared from the fate which befell the other banks, but it was not until the latter part of the year that the bank was able to get on its feet. The record of the banking institutions of Duluth in 1891 has been a remarkably good one considering certain contingencies which occurred at the close of the year 1890. Owing to the financial troubles then prevalent throughout the country, two banks failed here, causing more or less distress in all financial institutions. The Bank of Duluth was spared from the fate which befell the other banks, but it was not until the latter part of the year that the bank was able to get on its feet.

Banks.	1891.	1890.
American Exchange	$10,000	$10,000
First National	20,000	20,000
Security	20,000	20,000
State Bank	20,000	20,000
St. Louis County Bank	20,000	20,000
Commercial Bank	20,000	20,000
Manufacturers Bank	20,000	20,000
First National	20,000	20,000
American Loan & Trust Co.	20,000	20,000
Totals	$100,000	$100,000

The American Loan and Trust company devoted about $100,000 to the purchase of the capital to $100,000.

During 1891 the banks have assumed more conservative methods of business, owing to the fact that heavier burdens were thrown on them on account of the greater volume of business in breadstuffs, coal, iron and lumber and on account of the lessening of the number of banks. The amount of business moving through Duluth for the calendar year of 1891 was in receipts over 400,000 bushels and in shipments over 350,000 bushels. This immense movement in grain required a very large amount of capital. The cash for this purpose was mainly furnished by the American Exchange and First National banks. The Marine National and Security banks also furnished a part of the capital for this purpose. The smaller banks, however, devote their attention mainly to other lines of business, while the banks of larger capital handle a greater percentage of wheat business in proportion to the volume of the business of Duluth. In fact, the amount steadily kept pace with the development of the city as a commercial center. In 11 years Duluth's banking capital has grown from $200,000 to $2,500,000. The largest increase has occurred during the last five years contemporary with Duluth's greatest commercial development. Now Duluth's banking business in proportion to the capital engaged is as large as that of any other city in the United States. So marked has been the extent of the business transacted by Duluth banks that the project has been constantly agitated among our business men of securing more banks with additional capital to take care especially of the retail and general mercantile business.

The increase in banking capital in Duluth for 1891 was 25 per cent, and in surplus and undivided profits about 22 per cent. The demand for short time loans on good commercial paper through out the year has been remarkably good. The banks were enabled to place money out at a good rate of interest on the best of security. The volume of business may be safely judged from the following comparative table giving the bank clearances for 1891 and 1890:

Clearances for 1891	Clearances for 1890
$1,000,000	$800,000
$1,000,000	$800,000

The history of each of the 11 banks and its work for the year may be obtained briefly from the following statement of their condition on Jan. 1, 1892.

Banks.	Capital.	Surplus.	Undivided Profits.
American Exchange	$10,000	$10,000	$10,000
First National	20,000	20,000	20,000
Security	20,000	20,000	20,000
State Bank	20,000	20,000	20,000
St. Louis County Bank	20,000	20,000	20,000
Commercial Bank	20,000	20,000	20,000
Manufacturers Bank	20,000	20,000	20,000
First National	20,000	20,000	20,000
American Loan & Trust Co.	20,000	20,000	20,000
Totals	$100,000	$100,000	$100,000

The clearances of banks in a city sometimes do not give a correct idea of the volume of the actual business done by them. Especially is this so where the large monied transactions in connection with the receipts and shipments of wheat are made by contract with the two largest banks of the city. For this reason it was deemed best to prepare the above table showing the actual business done by each bank.

A Valuable Property. Stock in the Chandler mine has sold during the past week at $18.50 dividend. At this price per share the Chandler property, although only a lease, represents an aggregate value of about $200,000. A surplus of more than $750,000 held by the company is the cause of the present value of stock.

The American Exchange bank, the oldest in the city, has paid 24 semi-annual dividends of 5 per cent besides accumulating its present surplus of $100,000. Its earnings for 1891 were $43,000 exclusive of its dividends. It also increased its capital this year from $250,000 to $300,000.

The First National bank has the largest capital of any bank in the city and carries the heaviest loans and deposits. It declared in 1891 two semi-annual dividends of 6 per cent besides increasing its surplus to $200,000. The bank has been organized under the present name for only three years.

The Security bank has been organized only two years and two months and has earned in that time $30,000 besides paying dividends. In 1891 it declared a 4 per cent dividend. It attends largely to the iron business of the Mesaba and Vermilion ranges.

The Marine National bank has been organized two years and in that time has accumulated $200,000, $200,000 of which has been earned this year. It increased its capital and became a national bank a year ago.

The National Bank of Commerce has been running two years and has had the best business in its history during the last six months. It has declared a 5 per cent semi-annual dividend and has earned since its inception at the rate of over 10 per cent on its capital. It increased its capital from $100,000 to $200,000 this year.

The State bank was organized five years ago next May and has invariably paid a 4 per cent semi-annual dividend since its inception besides accumulating surplus and profits of $14,000 of which about $7,000 was added this year.

The St. Louis county bank has been organized about two years. This year it has earned $7,000 making over 10 per cent on the capital invested.

The Commercial bank has been organized only eight months but has a good patronage, with large deposits and good loans.

The Manufacturers bank of West Duluth was organized two years ago and has since paid 8 per cent semi-annual dividends besides accumulating a large surplus, a portion of which is devoted to increasing its capital this year from $50,000 to $100,000.

Denial in commercial paper is carried on to considerable extent among the leading firms engaged in this business enables us to estimate this business at about $3,000,000 for the year 1891. The year has not been as successful with them as 1890, but the demand for loans, however, has been very good. There has been a very large business done in loans inside property. Many of them look for a phenomenal year in 1892 in their line of business. This is predicted from the fact that money is now very plentiful in the East, while it remains at present scarce in Duluth.

The building and loan associations have had very successful years, and now stand in excellent financial condition. By personal canvass the following tabular statement as to their condition was obtained:

Associations.	Capital.	Surplus.	Undivided Profits.
First National	$10,000	$10,000	$10,000
Security	20,000	20,000	20,000
State Bank	20,000	20,000	20,000
St. Louis County Bank	20,000	20,000	20,000
Commercial Bank	20,000	20,000	20,000
Manufacturers Bank	20,000	20,000	20,000
First National	20,000	20,000	20,000
American Loan & Trust Co.	20,000	20,000	20,000
Totals	$100,000	$100,000	$100,000

It will be seen from this statement that these local associations have become a large feature in our financial world having received about $500,000 in receipts during 1891, the biggest portion of which was loaned out again. The paid in capital and surplus is another very marked feature of their financial success. They assist largely in furnishing homes to families of moderate means on small monthly payments. It is believed by those competent to judge that the financial institutions of Duluth were never on a sounder basis than they are. There has been a remarkable conservatism in business during the last year and it has led to the results in turning money into the channels of permanent improvement rather than to speculative channels. Legitimate mercantile business has been furnished with all necessary capital to carry on its business, but there has been no financial encouragement to speculation of any kind.

The following is a table of the sum total of the business of each Duluth bank for 1891:

Banks.	Capital.	Surplus.	Undivided Profits.
American Exchange	$10,000	$10,000	$10,000
First National	20,000	20,000	20,000
Security	20,000	20,000	20,000
State Bank	20,000	20,000	20,000
St. Louis County Bank	20,000	20,000	20,000
Commercial Bank	20,000	20,000	20,000
Manufacturers Bank	20,000	20,000	20,000
First National	20,000	20,000	20,000
American Loan & Trust Co.	20,000	20,000	20,000
Totals	$100,000	$100,000	$100,000

The Chileans Love us Too Well to En-

New York, Jan. 21.—The Herald this morning prints an interview with Chilean

Minister Montt, in which he expresses

the views of his government in the con-troverly now pending between Chile and the United States, which threatens to involve the United States in a war.

The minister began by saying: "Chile

has only the warmest feeling toward the United States. The American people do not understand Chile. Chile has done and is doing all she possibly can to investigate this trouble and to obtain the facts as properly as possible. It is impossible for her to make any reply to the demands of this government. She has conducted the matter just the same as the United States or any other country

would have conducted it if it had happened in their border. There has been no delay nor has there been undue haste.

The investigation has been thorough,

and what is finished has been known.

The matter is now in the hands of

Judge of Crimes Foster. He may not give his decision until Feb. 1.

When asked if it was true that the president of Chile and the leading statesmen of that country were disposed to be friendly towards this country, but were afraid to deal out justice, the minister replied: "Ho, I do not believe it. When the facts are properly ascertained, our officers of state will do strict and absolute justice in accordance therewith. It is not possible for any difference whatsoever to exist between Chile and the state of feeling in Chile may be, but the Chilean newspapers there is not one of war nor the slightest expression

of ill feeling towards the United States."

An Amiable Settlement Sought.

The Herald's Valparaiso special dispatch this morning says that President

Montt told an official high in the Chilean service yesterday that there was not the slightest doubt but what all matters at present in dispute between the United States and Chile would be amicably settled within a short time. The Chilean war ships have sailed on a practice

cruse.

MODEL BASEBALL LEAGUE.

The New Western Association Promises to be a Great Success.

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—The new organized in this city today a baseball league

that is a model. It is the new Western association, consisting of Minneapolis,

St. Paul, Omaha and Kansas City in the West and Milwaukee, Toledo, Columbus

and Indianapolis in the East.

In the constitution submitted by the committee to the delegates at the Auditing hotel were these provisions.

Every club shall have 12 players. No

club can sign any player whatever, but players must be signed by the secretary of the league. A list of eight teams of a dozen players each will be submitted to the league in session by the committee. The teams are of equal strength and will be divided into two leagues.

Each club is limited to $12,000 a season for salaries. The plan contemplates an equal division of the gate receipts, so that in the new league those terrors to

baseball, weak cities and tail enders,

should be absent.

MINNESOTA'S ALL RIGHT.

For Blaine, Davis and an Old-Time Republican Majority.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Charles A.

Pillsbury has about accomplished his work before the treasury department will select a speaker for Minnesota. He said today, in discussing Minnesota

politics, that he was confident the next legislature in Minnesota would be republican.

"If the legislature is republican who will succeed Davis as senator?" was asked.

"Davis will succeed himself," came the reply.

Mr. Pillsbury has no doubt but that

Minnesota will be republican by an old-time majority this year. He does not believe that the democrats and alliance

men will lose; but if they do, he does not believe that the republican party will suffer. Mr. Pillsbury is still for Blaine.

Why Mills Resigned.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—In Congressman Mills' letter to Speaker Crisp in which he resigns the chairmanship of the committee on interstate and foreign commerce, he says he prefers to hold

chairmanship in the present congress as he believes he can do better work on the floor than in a position that is uncongenial to him. The real reason for his action, however, is understood to be his determination to canvass actively for the Republican party in the coming campaign. He does not care to spend much time in the house while the canvass is going on.

Wreck on the Omaha.

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 21.—The Sioux

city train on the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha road was wrecked by a broken rail at Hamilton early this morning, 20 miles from St. Paul. Four sleepers were dented and piled up in wild shape. By a miracle no one was killed. The loss to the company will be $20,000.

United States Senator Gibson.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Jan. 21.—Hon. Chas.

A CITY'S DANGER

Chicago Threatened With a Water

Famine for the First Time in Its History.

The Lake Crib, the Main Source of the City's Water Supply, Frozen

Solid.

Manufactories Closed and Fears En-

tained Lest a Mighty Conflagration Should Result.

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—For the first time

in its history Chicago is threatened with a water famine that may prove of great injury to all business interests and a menace to property all over the city.

At midnight last night the lake crib at the end of the tunnel, the main source of the city's water supply, began to choke

up with ice, and this morning was frozen

solid for the first time since the tunnel

was built. All the manufactories in the city were unable to start up this morning

and all the hotels and residences could not secure even enough water for cooking purposes. Fortunately only a light

wind is blowing, so a serious conflagration is not threatened.

In case of fire the fire department would be almost helpless. One or two small fires broke out this morning, but owing to the favorable conditions, they were quickly extinguished by chemical engines. Thousands of householders

are crowding into the city hall and clamoring for water, but the city authorities are unable to satisfy them or assure them when they will be granted relief.

At 9:30 the condition of affairs was

most serious and City Engineer Clarke,

Fire Marshal Swine and Commissioner

Aldrich were in a state of excitement.

The supply of water was growing less

and fears of what might happen through the ice breaking out were entertained

by all.

At 9 o'clock Mr. Clarke received word that the ice had been partially removed from the ports at the two-mile crib and a half of the west side engines were in operation.

All of the hotel proprietors have organized bucket brigades for service as soon as their tank supplies are exhausted.

THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.

June 21 Selected as the Date; The Place Not Yet Named.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The national democratic committee met in the Arlington hotel at 12:10 p. m. The banquet hall was handsomely decorated with the flags of all nations—the American colors predominating. The dinner

among the decorations was running by

with a background of mirrors which reflected the gay colors and vines in every direction. In a semi-circle about the seat of the chairman, facing the entrance to the banquet hall, were drawn up 200

chairs. Behind these was an open space.

The room accommodated about 600

persons.

Chairman Bruce called the meeting to order and Gen. Walker introduced District Commissioner Ross, who in behalf of the local democracy and in the name of the people of the District of Columbia, extended the delegates a cordial welcome to the capital city of the republic.

The roll was then called and Senator

Vilas moved to go into executive session. This motion prevailed. At 12:20
